Our FAITHFULNESS

Winter weather usually keeps people indoors and away from church during the month of February, making it one of the worst giving months of the year. But this year, February was a strong month of giving for Chilson Hills Church! Thanks to your gifts, we collected more than we spent. During this month, your donations...

- Supported staff members
- Purchased Bibles for children
- Maintained our facility
- Paid for youth ministries
- Created our Bible training seminar

THANK YOU!

Our Mission...

Connecting together in Christ to serve all God's people.

Are you NEW here?

FILL OUT your Community Connection Form found in today's bulletin or text the word, "WELCOME" to 810-285-7769

STOP BY our Information Center for a free gift, brochures, and print versions of the sermon.

EVERY WEEK we ask our members to participate in an offering. If you're new to Chilson, please don't feel pressured to contribute. Our offerings provide an opportunity for our members to support the ministry of this church. If you don't usually carry cash or a checkbook, feel free to give online at chilsonhills.org/give.

Communion is a special moment in our service when we remember the love of Jesus exemplified by his death on the cross. We invite everyone - regardless of age or church affiliation - to participate in The Lord's Supper, but please don't feel pressured to do so. Our worship leader will give you instructions as to how you can participate.

KIDS! at Chilson Hills

Please your kids in at the sign-in table in the lobby. Children are encouraged to participate in our worship services and are invited to come to the stage where they will receive a special lesson from Pastor D.J. or another adult church member.

After the lesson, the children will be dismissed to go to their Sunday School classes in the upper level. Activity bags for the children are available to be checked out at the sign-in table.

Sermon and Notes

Sermon Title:

"Worship"

Key Question:

Why is worship important for a growing faith?

Mark 10:35-52 (NIRV)

³⁵ James and John came to Jesus. They were the sons of Zebedee. "Teacher," they said, "we would like to ask you for a favor."

³⁶ "What do you want me to do for you?" he asked.

³⁷ They replied, "Let one of us sit at your right hand in your glorious kingdom. Let the other one sit at your left hand."

³⁸ "You don't know what you're asking for," Jesus said. "Can you drink the cup of suffering I drink? Or can you go through the baptism of suffering I must go through?"

³⁹ "We can," they answered.

Jesus said to them, "You will drink the cup I drink. And you will go through the baptism I go through. ⁴⁰ But it is not for me to say who will sit at my right or left hand. These places belong to those they are prepared for."

⁴¹ The other ten disciples heard about it. They became angry at James and John. ⁴² Jesus called them together. He said, "You know about those who are rulers of the Gentiles. They hold power over their people. Their high officials order them around. ⁴³ Don't be like that. Instead, anyone who wants to be important among you must be your servant. ⁴⁴ And anyone who wants to be first must be the slave of everyone. ⁴⁵ Even the Son of Man did not come to be served. Instead, he came to serve others. He came to give his life as the price for setting many people free."

⁴⁶ Jesus and his disciples came to Jericho. They were leaving the city. A large crowd was with them. A blind man was sitting by the side of the road begging. His name was Bartimaeus. Bartimaeus means Son of Timaeus. ⁴⁷ He heard that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. So he began to shout, "Jesus! Son of David! Have mercy on me!"

⁴⁸ Many people commanded him to stop. They told him to be quiet. But he shouted even louder, "Son of David! Have mercy on me!"

⁴⁹ Jesus stopped and said, "Call for him."

So they called out to the blind man, "Cheer up! Get up on your feet! Jesus is calling for you." ⁵⁰ He threw his coat to one side. Then he jumped to his feet and came to Jesus.

⁵¹ "What do you want me to do for you?" Jesus asked him.

The blind man said, "Rabbi, I want to be able to see."

⁵² "Go," said Jesus. "Your faith has healed you." Right away he could see. And he followed Jesus along the road.
